WORKSHOP FEATURING LARRY KANE, MEDIA IMAGERY AND WMSH DRAWS REGIONAL BUSINESS & INDUSTRY LEADERS

MICHAEL, LARRY & BEN

Pennsauken, NJ: KYW NewsRadio, The Enterprise Center at Burlington Community College and Southern New Jersey Business People recently sponsored a Media and Presentation Skills Workshop featuring keynote speaker and the Dean of Philadelphia television news, Larry Kane. Michael Willmann, Chairman of WMSH Marketing Communications and MI President, Ben Bencivenga were the presenters of a three-hour, multi-media workshop assisting attendees in dealing with the media and sharpening their presentation skills. Executive Prompting, Inc., along with Pat DelSordo of DelSordoDesigns and Sir Speedy also participated in the workshop that drew nearly 150 attendees.

THE SALVATION ARMY OF DELAWARE

Media Imagery was pleased to welcome back The Salvation Army of Greater Phila. for a green-screen holiday fundraising TV spot in association with PECO. MI also posted a new HD PSA for WHYYY. The Salvation Army of Delaware selected MI to write, shoot and produce a promotional DVD for Delaware's Keep A Job program. MI and WMSH Marketing Communications also produced a fundraising promotional DVD for The Salvation Army's planned Ray and Joan Kroc Corps Community Center in Camden slated to open in 2011.

UNIVERS WORKPLACE BENEFITS

Univers Workplace Benefits selected MI to produce a 52-module series of employee benefits tutorials for customization and distribution to their roster of nationwide clients. The series was shot in MI's 1200sf studio on green-screen followed by three-weeks of digital compositing. MI welcomed LF Driscoll, one of Philadelphia's top construction firms, for the production of a corporate presentation on their construction of St. Joseph University's new basketball field house. The media featured legendary St. Joe's coach, Phil Martelli.
